

JESS LOUISE

A LIFESTYLE BLOG

ABOUT THE BLOGGER

Hi, my name is Jess and I run a blog called 'Jess Louise'. I love cats and coffee shops, and I can often be seen either blogging, doing handstands or studying! I love giving advice and helping others through my blog, as well as sharing posts about college, make-up, product reviews and details about my life. I also have over 5 years blogging experience, of which I have learnt a lot.

ABOUT THE BLOG

'Jess Louise' established in 2013 as a lifestyle blog, but now it has flourished into a blog of many niches including beauty, books, fashion, reviews and studying tips! Occasionally you will see the odd post about various events and trips that have occurred in my life, and obviously some posts about Harry Potter! Many people describe 'Jess Louise' as having a relaxed, chatty, easy-to-read style that is unique and they enjoy. Thank-you for your interest in 'Jess Louise' and I look forward to working with you xx
